DEFINITIONS

MEMBERS & MEETINGS

Member – A person recognized to be in good standing by the Registrar-General's active membership list, NSSAR.

Inactive Member – A person (1) whose dues is in arrears and has been dropped from the active members list by the Registrar-General, NSSAR and (2) A person who has resigned.

Annual Meeting – A business meeting of the Chapter, held in December of each year, to which all members are invited. Annual reports of Committee Chairmen may be presented, in addition to any other business deemed necessary.

Annual Awards Dinner – In early December, soon after the Annual Meeting, the Chapter will gather for the Annual Chapter Awards Dinner. The Chapter President will present awards to Chapter Compatriots and Others who have made significant contributions to the Chapter's and the Society's success. It is recommended that the newly elected officers be installed at the conclusion of the ceremonies and the New President presents a brief vision for the coming year.

General Meeting – Any meeting to which the Chapter Membership has been invited, including Dinners and Luncheons, where the business of the Chapter may be carried on. Excluded are the Annual Meeting, meetings of the Board of Management and of the Executive Committee.

Board of Management Meeting – Regularly scheduled meetings attended for discussion of and action on Chapter business. All members of the Chapter are welcome but only Board of Management Members have voting privileges.

Executive Committee Meeting – Meeting called by the President and attended by members of the Executive Committee and invited guests, to develop policies and philosophy for presentation to the Board of Management.

SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
OHIO SOCIETY
CINCINNATI CHAPTER
CONSTITUTION

Article I – Name

The name of this organization shall be the Cincinnati Chapter, Ohio Society, Sons of the American Revolution. It is referred to in this Constitution and these By-Laws as “Cincinnati Chapter”, “the Chapter”, “this Chapter”, “the Society”, and “this Society”.

Article II – Objectives

The objectives of this Chapter are declared to be patriotic, historical and educational, and shall include those intended or designed to perpetuate the memory of those who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war and of the Revolutionary period; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble of the Constitution of our country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

Article III – Eligibility for Membership

Section 1. – Any man shall be eligible for Regular Membership in this Chapter and Society who meets the requirements for Regular Membership in the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution. (Reference National Society pamphlets, Handbook, and the National website for the latest information on membership requirements. These are also references for information on Junior Membership and Junior Registration.)

Section 2. – Other classes of membership may be authorized by the Board of Management and shall be promulgated by Administrative Instructions or standing rules.

Section 3. – Any member in good standing of any other Chapter, or any other State, or Territorial Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, who having performed an outstanding civic or patriotic service for the United States of America, may be made an honorary member by vote of this Chapter, without the payment of admission fees or annual dues, and such honorary member shall be entitled to all the privileges of this Chapter, except the right to vote, to hold office, or to be eligible to be a delegate to a State Meeting or to a National Congress.

Article IV – Officers and Board of Management

Section 1. – The officers of the Chapter shall be: President; First and Second Vice-Presidents; Secretary; Treasurer; Historian; Registrar; Webmaster; and Chaplain.

Section 2. – The Chapter officers, along with up to (5) Chapter members who shall be elected, and all living Past Cincinnati Chapter Presidents in good standing, shall constitute the Chapter Board of Management. A Dual Member is eligible to hold office and be a delegate from his dual state or home state, but not in both societies.

Section 3. – The officers and up to five (5) Chapter members for the Board of Management shall be elected at a November General Meeting of the Chapter and installed at the conclusion of the Chapter's December Annual Awards Dinner. They shall hold office for a term of one (1) year, or until their successors are elected and installed. A sitting Officer may run for re-election to his current position. The installation procedure shall be governed by the procedures listed in the NSSAR Handbook.

Section 4. – Intentionally Blank

Section 5. – One person may hold more than one office but shall have only one (1) vote.

Section 6. – In the event of a vacancy in the office of the President, the First Vice-President shall become President. The Second Vice-President shall advance to the office of First Vice-President and the position of Second Vice-President shall remain open until the next election. However, if the vacancy is caused by a condition that will only result in a short absence, the President's position will be filled by the First Vice-President for the period of time, with the Second Vice-President remaining in position. Should more than one (1) vacancy occur, under like conditions as stated above, officers will advance in order of rank as stated in Article IV, Section 1, to cover such openings. A vacancy in any other office shall be filled by the Board of Management after considering the recommendations of the Nominating Committee.

Section 7. – The President shall have the power to appoint an Executive Committee, consisting of the President; the Vice-Presidents; Secretary; Treasurer; and other members that he may deem necessary. This committee shall be approved by the Board of Management.

The Executive Committee shall function chiefly during the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Management. At such times, it shall act for the Chapter's needs. However, its actions shall be subordinate to the Board of Management's instructions. In the case of any conflict, the Board of Management can countermand or nullify any action taken by the Executive Committee, and/or give it explicit operating instructions.

Section 8. – Meetings of the Board of Management shall be held a minimum of four times per year at a suitable time and place. Board of Management Meetings shall be held during the first fourteen (14) days of the month in which they are held. No Meetings of the Board of Management shall be held in July or August. Board of Management meetings are open to members in good standing from the Cincinnati Chapter and visiting SAR members from other Chapters, however only Board of Management members may vote.

Section 9. – Special meetings may be called by the President, and must be called upon the request in writing of five (5) or more members of the Board of Management. Special meetings of the Chapter shall be called whenever requested by fifteen (15) or more members (in good standing) of the Chapter.

Section 10. – There shall be at least ten (10) members present, including at least 3 officers at any meeting of the Chapter in order to constitute a quorum.

Article V – Annual Meeting and Election of Officers, and Board of Management

Section 1. – The Annual Meeting of the Chapter for the transaction of business shall be held each year at the same location as the regular Board of Management Meeting scheduled for December. This Annual Meeting will follow the Board of Management Meeting.

Section 2. – The Nominating Committee as defined in Article II, Section 13 of the By-Laws, shall report at the November meeting of the Board of Management, the names of one (1) or more candidates for each office to be filled, and upon approval by the Board of Management, shall report the approved names of such candidates at the November General Meeting of the Chapter.

Section 3. – Nominations for any office may be made from the floor during the November General Meeting of the Chapter.

Section 4. – If there is more than one (1) candidate nominated to any office, elections for that office shall be by written ballot. If there is not more than one (1) nomination for any office, the vote may be by acclamation. The candidate receiving the majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected and will be installed at the conclusion of the Chapter's December Annual Awards Dinner and will take office on January 1st.

Article VI – Amendments

Any proposed amendments to this Constitution may be submitted in writing at any regular meeting of the Board of Management. Such proposed amendments must be signed by three (3) active members of the Chapter before being submitted to the Board of Management for vote on its acceptance. Upon a favorable vote, a copy of the proposed amendment shall be sent to each Chapter member. After such notice, the proposed amendments shall be voted on at the next Chapter Meeting, providing however that it is at least thirty (30) days after sending the proposed amendments.

Article VII – Distribution of Assets of Dissolution

IRS Compliance. The Cincinnati Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, is a chartered subordinate body of the Ohio Society, Sons of the American Revolution which is an exempt organization under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. All the purposes stated in Article II of this Constitution are for educational purposes as provided in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and any activity not permitted by the provisions of that portion of the Code is prohibited. In the event of the dissolution of the Cincinnati Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, all its assets, not required to meet legal obligations of this Chapter and all materials of this Chapter shall become the property of the Ohio Society, Sons of the American Revolution.

Article VIII – Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. – The rules set forth in the most current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the Cincinnati Chapter in all meetings of the Board of Management in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution and the By-Laws of the Cincinnati Chapter, the Ohio Society, and the National Society.

Section 12. – These Standing Committees may be amended according to the requirements of Article IV of these By-Laws.

Section 13. – The basic duties of each Standing Committee shall be outlined hereafter but they shall be flexible as to allow freedom of deviation when needed by the committee Chairman, while staying with the objectives stated in Article II of the Chapter Constitution.

Americanism Elementary School Poster Contest Committee – Shall administer the local contest by the rules and policies established by the NSSAR and the Ohio Society.

Arthur M. & Berdena King Eagle Scout Scholarship Competition Committee – Honors those who attain the highest rank in Scouting. It is judged on the basis of school and community service, completion of a four generation genealogy chart, and a 500 word patriotic theme. The competition encourages the study of Law, American Heritage, and Genealogy among young men. The intent is to recognize good citizenship and patriotism and remind us of our heritage and the sacrifices of our ancestors, whether they immigrated in 1740 or 1980.

Audit Committee – A committee of three or more members of the Chapter in good standing and appointed by the Chapter President at the Annual Meeting who shall conduct an audit of the Chapter treasury according to the “standards of a reasonable and prudent person” at the conclusion of the fiscal year, and to report to the Board of Management its findings.

Awards Committee – Shall assist the President obtaining, and presenting the medals and certificates authorized according to the NSSAR Handbook, and all related publications issued for this purpose by the NSSAR.

Community Outreach Committee Shall expand and enforce the understanding of Patriotism through the distribution of the chapter bookmarks and the presentation of patriotic experiences to educational groups, service organizations, immigration and naturalization facilities, plus any similar groups and individuals

Douglas G. High Historical Oration Contest Committee – This committee shall nurture the understanding of Patriotism through the art of public expression and speaking among all students in grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 of all schools and home-schooling programs. It shall convert to the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Oration Contest at the National level.

Ertel Memorial Fund Committee – A permanent committee of a minimum of three past Cincinnati Chapter presidents, appointed by the Chapter President and approved by the Board of Management, to administer the Ertel Memorial Fund. Only the interest/dividends generated from the invested principle can be used for worthy purposes. The Board of Management may request distributions from the fund’s interest/dividends for worthy expenses approved by the Board of Management. The committee is encouraged to offer perspective and guidance regarding the worthiness of the request before a final vote of distribution is taken by BOTH the Board of Management and the committee. BOTH the Board of Management and the Ertel Memorial Fund Committee must approve the request in order for the final distribution to be made.

Flags Committee – To administer the loaning out, maintenance, and inventory of all Chapter Flags and their related equipment and also responsible for presenting at least one Flag Certificate and Flag Presentation annually. The Flag Committee will also be responsible for the presentation, preservation and storage of the Howard Miller Memorial Historical Flag Collection. The Miller Flag collection will be displayed at least once a year in accordance with the contract with the Howard Miller family.

George S. & Stella Knight Essay Contest Committee – The G&S Knight Essay Committee offers and monitors the annual contest which is open to all students who are United States citizens or legal aliens. Contestants shall be attending public, parochial, or private high schools (including accredited home schools). Contestants shall be in their sophomore, junior, or senior grade of study during the contest year. The contest is conducted in three phases: local (Chapter), state (State Society) and National. The contest must be entered through a Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution near the student's residence. The contest is for an original researched and proven topic written in English. The topic of the essay shall deal with: an event, person, philosophy, or ideal associated with the American Revolution, the Declaration of Independence, or the framing of the United States Constitution.

Good Citizenship Committee – To aid and monitor education and understanding of Good Citizenship qualities among students of all schools; advise in the development of good citizenship by stressing dependability, cooperation, leadership, patriotism in America, and cleanliness of speech and habits; issue a good citizenship award in the form of a certificate to the student from each eighth grade class who is nominated by their classmates and is selected by the faculty by use of these nominations. The intent is to award students who demonstrate and practice those qualities that form the foundation of ideal citizenship.

Lawrence History Teacher Contest Committee – Shall administer the local contest by the rules and policies established by the NSSAR and the Ohio Society.

Newsletter Committee - To publish a Chapter Newsletter, on a semi-annual basis or as determined by the Board of Management.

Nolan Carson Memorial Color Guard Committee – The Nolan Carson Color Guard shall be commanded by a Chairman with the title of “Nolan Carson Color Guard Commander”. The Color Guard Commander may appoint color guard members as well as a Deputy or Acting Color Guard Commander and Color Guard Armorer as assistants. The Commander shall establish a schedule of appearances of the Color Guard at public, National, State, and Chapter events; maintain liaison with State and National Color Guard Commanders; maintain reports and records; set guidelines for Color Guard uniforms, protocol and safety procedures that are consistent with Ohio Society and National Society policies and standards; maintain an inventory of Color Guard equipment/uniforms; and recommend appropriate awards for Color Guard Members to the Awards Committee Chairman.

Nominating Committee – Composition of this committee shall consist of the immediate Past Cincinnati Chapter President who shall serve as chairman, plus the last two (2) Past Cincinnati Chapter Presidents who are available to serve. This committee shall monitor the entire Chapter membership to locate and select interested members that would be capable and willing to serve on the Board of Management and/or as Chapter officers.

Notification Committee – To utilize telephone, email, and other methods of modern communication to reach all levels of membership.

Patriotic Outreach Committee – Shall administer the local Partners in Patriotism, American Legion Boys State, and Wreaths Across America programs in accordance with the policies established by the NSSAR and the Ohio Society for these and all Patriotic Outreach Programs that may be established and sanctioned by the NSSAR.

Programs Committee – The Programs Committee will be responsible for the arrangements, speakers, and programs of Chapter meetings, luncheons, dinners, and/or events. This committee is to consist of a chairman who may enlist any number of compatriots to assist him as necessary.

Publicity Committee – To issue news releases with photographs when feasible to local media of SAR activities and functions; to issue news releases of chapter activities and functions with photographs to the SAR Magazine, being cognizant of the deadline dates.

Resolutions Committee – To meet as needed to consider and format suggested resolutions. They shall guard against injudicious and indiscriminate resolutions. They shall thoroughly review all of the information and instructions suggested to be covered by the resolution and submit it to the Board of Management or the Executive Committee (if one has been appointed), at the earliest opportunity for their final approval and consent to issue.

Revolutionary Sites and War Graves Committee – The objectives of this committee shall have as its goal the task of marking all sites and war graves which are associated with the American Revolution, and to keep a record of their location, dedication, and condition.

ROTC/JROTC Recognition Program Committee – To promote the professionalism, excellent performance, leadership, and inspiration of members of the University, College, and/or High School level ROTC Programs. This committee may consist of one or more members as appointed by the Chairman.

Sgt. Moses Adams Memorial Middle School Brochure Contest Committee – Shall administer the local contest by the rules and policies established by the NSSAR and the Ohio Society.

Veterans Committee – Shall assist local level VA Medical Facility Veterans Administration Volunteer Services in benevolent assistance to hospitalized veterans and related activities, participate with the Veteran community on programs that further the goals and objectives of the groups and the SAR, and support the activities of the NSSAR Veteran's Committee.

Section 14. - A Time and Talent Pool will supply Committee Chairmen with suitable staffing to accomplish committee duties. This Pool shall be made up of Chapter compatriots and prospective members. The Second Vice-President or his assistant will maintain a listing of Pool members, their skills, interests and time availability. The Second Vice-President or his assistant will also coordinate communication between Committee Chairmen and members of the Pool.

Section 15. – Officers and committee chairmen are encouraged to mentor other compatriots in the responsibilities of their positions to ensure that the missions and goals of the Chapter, the Ohio Society, and the National Society will succeed. Officers and committee chairmen are encouraged to document the standard operating procedures (SOP's) of their positions in written format, and to file these SOP's with the Chapter Secretary for continuity of operations.

Article III – Application Fees and Annual Dues

Section 1. – The application fees and dues shall be governed by the most recent copy of the Ohio Society Administrative Instruction 200-x where “x” is the suffix of the most recent version. The Chapter fees and dues are to be established by the Chapter Board of Management Section 2. – There are no provisions for “Life Membership” in this Chapter.

Section 3. – The annual dues for each member of the Cincinnati Chapter shall be established by the Chapter Board of Management and incorporated into Administrative Instruction 200-x, and included as Cincinnati Chapter SAR Addendum to Article III, Section 1, CCSAR By-Laws Application Fees and Annual Dues. All dues shall be payable in advance (except as listed in Section 4 of this Article), to the Chapter Treasurer.

Section 4. –National Society, Ohio Society and Cincinnati Chapter dues will be collected and applied based on the current collection policies and schedules determined by the National Society SAR and the Ohio Society SAR.

Section 5. – Any member whose dues are in arrears as of 01 January will be dropped from the active membership list. The dropped member may apply for reinstatement by completing the National Society's Reinstatement Form and paying all applicable dues to the Chapter Treasurer.

Article IV – Amendments

Any proposed amendments to these By-Laws may be submitted in writing at any regular meeting of the Board of Management. Such proposed amendments must be signed by three (3) active members of the Chapter before being submitted to the Board of Management for vote on its acceptance. Upon a favorable vote, a copy of the proposed amendment shall be sent to each Chapter member. After such notice, the proposed amendments shall be voted on at the next Chapter Meeting, providing however that it is at least thirty (30) days after sending the proposed amendments.
